A Practical Handbook for Seniors

Brant Elder Abuse Committee

The Brant Elder Abuse Committee thanks the many agencies and organizations who provided the data for this handbook. We would like to acknowledge Nova Vita Domestic Violence Prevention Services for their permission to utilize information from The Refrigerator Door in this publication. We would also like to thank the Brant United Way for providing the funding for the Senior's Tool Kit.

In addition, we would like to thank the members of the Brant Elder Abuse, Education sub-committee for recognizing the need in the community for a Senior's Tool Kit and working to bring this document to fruition.

Every effort has been made to ensure the information enclosed is accurate and up-to-date. Inevitably, however, changes to programming and services will occur. Readers may wish to confirm any details with the agencies/service providers directly. Inclusion in this book does not constitute endorsement by The Brant Elder Abuse Committee, the Brant United Way or the City of Brantford. Conversely, any omissions of programs and services are not intentional.

Elder Abuse Ontario (EAO) is dedicated to raising awareness of elder abuse and neglect, through public education, professional training, advocacy, and service coordination. In addition to implementing Ontario's Strategy to Combat Elder Abuse, EAO supports a growing number of vital projects and research in elder abuse and neglect prevention.

Specifically, EAO's mandate is to:

1. Educate professionals and the public about elder abuse and neglect
2. Promote information-sharing among professionals and advocates involved in elder abuse prevention
3. Develop educational and training programs about elder abuse prevention and intervention for professionals and caregivers
4. Advocate for legislative action to meet the needs of victims and their families, and to deal with perpetrators of abuse
5. Provide services and support to victims of elder abuse and neglect
6. Practice and promote sensitivity to multicultural issues related to elder abuse.

WHAT IS ELDER ABUSE?

Abuse occurs in all types of families of all socio-economic, racial, religious and cultural backgrounds. Most elder abuse is caused by a family member. This could be a son, daughter, spouse, grandchild, or other relative. This family member is often dependent on the older person for money or a place to live, or vice-versa. If there is evidence of assault the police will lay charges, and sentences for convicted perpetrators can include jail time.

Most forms of Elder Abuse can be divided into 6 different categories:

1. Physical
2. Psychological
3. Verbal
4. Financial
5. Sexual
6. Neglect

Physical Abuse

The intentional use of physical force that causes pain, discomfort or injury to an elderly person.

Examples include but are not limited to:

- hitting, slapping
- biting, kicking or punching
- overmedicating or withholding medication
- Rough handshaking
- Inappropriate use of restraints

Psychological Abuse

Any action or behaviour that causes emotional pain or distress to an elderly person, diminishing their self-worth and dignity.

Examples include but are not limited to:

- Intimidation through threats
- Name-calling
- Humiliation in private and public
- Talking to the elder as if they were a child
- Making decisions for the person against their will

Verbal Abuse

Any form of verbal communication that is negative in nature and its goal is to belittle and degrade the self-worth and dignity of an elderly person.

Examples include but are not limited to:

Inappropriate volume control of the voice

- Accusing or blaming
- Reflecting abuse as a joke
- Judging or criticizing

Financial Abuse

One of the most commonly disclosed forms of elder abuse, financial abuse can be defined as any theft or unauthorized use of money or property of an elderly person by a family member, caregiver, friend or an unknown person.

Examples include but are not limited to:

- Withholding funds or access to bank accounts
- Forcing the person to sign over Power of Attorney/change their Will
- Forcing the person to sell their possessions

- Opening up accounts in the person's name
- Making the person sign documents they don't fully understand
- Scams and Frauds

Sexual Abuse

Forcing a person, against their will, to engage in sexual activity through physical contact, threats or coercion.

Examples include but are not limited to:

- Inappropriate touching
- Physical sex acts
- Unwanted sexual comments
- Forcing the person to watch sex acts

Neglect

Failure to provide the necessities of life to a person who cannot maintain adequate care for themselves.

Examples include but are not limited to:

- Unsanitary living conditions: piled up garbage, dirty floors, soiled bedding and furniture
- Malnourishment
- Overmedicated/Under medicated
- Untreated medical issues: bed sores, broken bones from a fall
- Being left unwashed for weeks at a time
- Letting bills go unpaid
- Leaving the person alone in a public place

Signs & Symptoms of Elder Abuse

Victims of elder abuse may show signs of any of the following symptoms:

- Poor hygiene
- Malnourishment
- Unexplained physical injuries
- A heightened sense of fear or anxiety
- Depression

Report Elder Abuse

Elder Abuse is never acceptable. If you or someone you know is in immediate danger or if help is needed in an emergency, call 9-1-1. If you or a senior you know has been a victim of a theft, fraud or physical assault, contact your local police department. For information and referral to community supports that may be of assistance. Locally in Brantford and Brant County contact: Victim Services of Brant at: 519-752-3140

Victim Services of Brant

519-752-3140

Victim Services of Brant provides immediate on scene emotional support and practical assistance to victims of crime, tragic circumstance or disaster. The police will offer Victim Services when they arrive on scene at a call where a victim is involved. Victim Services is available to provide immediate support to a victim of crime at their residence, hospital or another safe location. Even if police have not been called anyone can access Victim Services for support by calling the office and scheduling an appointment. The service is free and confidential.

WHAT IS ELDER ABUSE?

The Victim Services of Brant, Court Assistance Program provides support to victims at the initial stages of the court process. Victim Services provide support staff with input regarding background of relationship and concerns regarding the accused. This information will be made available to the court.

Victim Support Staff are available to: explain the bail process, advise you of the outcome of the bail hearing, act as a liaison for you with the Crown Attorney and Police Services, and assist you in accessing appropriate support services.

What to Expect When Reporting Elder Abuse to Police

Responding officers will conduct a thorough investigation to the allegations. If officers believe they have reasonable grounds to suspect elder abuse has occurred, that person will be arrested and a charge will be laid.

Charges are laid when reasonable grounds exist to do so. Reasonable grounds are a set of circumstances which would satisfy an ordinary person to believe an offence has been committed. The belief must go beyond mere suspicion. It is important to remember that once a charge has been laid neither the police nor the victim can withdraw the charges.

In cases of assault, the abuser may remain in custody pending a bail hearing.

The Bail Hearing Process

Police may decide to hold the accused for a Bail Hearing and the court will determine whether the abuser should be released or remain in custody.

If released, the abuser will have conditions placed on them that they must follow. Conditions such as no contact directly or indirectly with the victim and not to attend the victim's address are the most common in cases of assault. An accused can be released to a suitable person determined by the courts or on their own Recognizance.

Elder abuse including physical attacks, sexual abuse or threats is a crime. You have a right to call the police and be protected from your abuser.

LIFELONG LEARNING

Lifelong learning is the process of keeping your mind and body engaged—at any age—by actively pursuing knowledge and experience. The pursuit of knowledge through lifelong learning has wonderful benefits for adults 50-plus:

- Keeps your mind sharp
- Improves memory
- Increases self-confidence
- Offers an inexpensive way to try something new
- Saves money as you learn to “do it yourself”
- Gives you a feeling of accomplishment
- Helps you meet people who share your interests
- Builds on skills you already have
- Offers an opportunity to learn a new skill or trade and increase your income
- Gives you a new interest that you can share with family and friends

Life Long Learning Plan (LLP)

The Lifelong Learning Plan (LLP) set out by the Canadian Government allows you to withdraw amounts from your RRSPs to finance full-time training or education for you or your spouse or common-law partner. Information and application forms can be found on the Canada Revenue Agencies website.

FAITH / RELIGION

The location of churches and other places of worship are listed in the local telephone directory. In addition to their faith services, many churches host social activities and/or support groups. Churches and places of worship also allow for another connection into the community, and can act as a way to meet new people and friends. In a time of need churches and places of worship can act as a support system. Getting involved allows for seniors to keep their mind and body active, while giving back to the community.

What is Alzheimer's disease?

Alzheimer's disease is the most common form of dementia, a serious brain disorder that impacts daily living through memory loss and cognitive changes, and as well changes in behavior and insight.

Symptoms of Alzheimer's disease usually develop slowly and gradually worsen over time, progressing from mild forgetfulness to widespread brain impairment. Chemical and structural changes in the brain slowly destroy the ability to create, remember, learn, reason, and relate to others. As critical cells die, significant personality loss may occur.

Signs and symptoms of Alzheimer's disease

For many people, detecting the first signs of memory problems in themselves or family members brings an immediate fear of Alzheimer's disease. However, most people over 65 experience some level of forgetfulness such as misplacing the keys or glasses. Forgetfulness is merely inconvenient but does not impact on one's daily life. Forgetting is not a normal part of aging. Understanding the significance of these age-related changes begins with knowing the difference between what is normal and what is an early symptom of Alzheimer's.

Coping with an Alzheimer's diagnosis

An Alzheimer's diagnosis is an enormous adjustment for both you and your family member. For many, the secrets to navigating this journey are learning, supporting, and loving. While there is currently no cure for Alzheimer's disease, there are treatments available for the symptoms. These treatments cannot prevent Alzheimer's from progressing but if symptoms are diagnosed early enough, they can be effective in delaying the onset of more debilitating symptoms. Early diagnosis can prolong independence and is the first step towards treatment, management, and living life fully.

If a loved one's symptoms have been diagnosed as Alzheimer's disease:

If a family member has been diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease you may also be dealing with a host of emotions. You may be grieving for your family member especially if significant memory loss is already present. You may feel like you no longer know this person as new behaviors and moods develop that are unlike the person you remember. You may start to become overwhelmed with the needs of your loved one, or even resentful that other family members won't help enough.

- Learn as much as you can. Understanding what to expect will help you plan for care and transitions. Knowledge will help you both honor a family member's strengths and capabilities throughout each stage, and make sure you have the strength and resources to carry on.

- Don't take on the caregiving journey alone. No matter how dedicated you are, at some point you will need some help in caregiving. No one can be awake and alert 24 hours a day. You have your own health and other obligations to consider. Having support in caregiving is key, whether it be from other family, in-home help, respite care, or making the decision to move your family member to assisted living or nursing home.

Visitors and social events

Visitors can be a rich part of the day for a person with Alzheimer's disease. It can also provide an opportunity for the caregiver to socialize or take a break if appropriate. Plan visitors at a time of day when your family member can best handle them. Visitors can be briefed on communication tips if they are uncertain. They can also bring memorabilia your family member may like, such as a favorite old song or book. Family and social events may also be appropriate, as long as the person with dementia is comfortable. Focus on events that won't overwhelm the person; excessive activity or stimulation at the wrong time of day might be too much to handle.

DISABILITY SERVICES*

When you hear the word “disability”, what pops into your mind? Do you think of a person who uses a wheelchair? Or a person with a service animal?

There are many kinds and degrees of disabilities. Being hard of hearing is different from being Deaf. Having low vision is different from being legally blind.

A disability can happen to anyone at any time. Some people are born with a disability. For others, the disability happens because of an illness or an accident. Sometimes it’s because the person is getting older.

Let’s take a look at various types of disabilities:

- Visual
- Hearing
- Deaf-blind
- Physical
- Speech or language
- Mental health
- Intellectual/ developmental
- Learning

Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005*

The government enacted the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act in 2005. This act lays the framework for the development of province-wide mandatory standards on accessibility in all areas of daily life.

Accessibility standards- Ontario now has accessibility standards in five areas:

- Customer service
- Employment
- Information and communications
- Transportation
- Design of public spaces

END OF LIFE PLANNING

Advance Care Planning

Advance Care Planning is about making choices while you are competent about how you wish to be cared for in the future if you become incapable of making decisions. You can take steps now to ensure that your wishes are followed, by providing someone you trust with the authority to act on your behalf.

More information can be found on the Ministry of the Attorney Generals website:

http://www.attorneygeneral.jus.gov.on.ca/english/justice-ont/estate_planning.asp

Speak Up Campaign for Advance Care Planning

www.advancecareplanning.ca

Provides interactive workbooks and guides to ensuring that your loved ones know your wishes in the event you are not able to express them. Creates a starting point for conversations, to discuss your wishes for you health, financial and legal matters.

End of Life

When someone close to you dies, you could be faced with making difficult decisions with little preparation. Knowing your rights ahead of time could make this stressful time a little easier. Ontario law protects consumers who are making final arrangements. For example, a funeral, transfer service, cemetery or crematorium operator must give you a current price list of all the supplies and services they offer before you enter into a contract, so you can compare rates. They also need to tell you if they will receive a commission by recommending certain services or suppliers. By law you have 30 days to cancel a contract for funeral, burial or cremation services and get a full refund for any part of the contract not yet provided. In addition, all prepaid contracts written as of July 1, 2012 must be guaranteed. This means that if you have paid your contract in full, your service provider must supply everything specified in your contract when you need it and without any additional charges, even if prices have gone up.

ORGAN AND TISSUE DONATION

Organ and tissue donation can help enhance and save lives, and provide immediate comfort and long-lasting consolation to grieving family members. You can also choose to donate a body to science or medical research in Ontario.

In Ontario, medical schools or Schools of Anatomy are dependent upon the generosity of persons willing to donate their bodies to train future medical professionals, enhance skill sets and expand knowledge. Donating your body to science is different from donating organs and tissues to a living person. Body donation means that your whole body is donated to a Schools of Anatomy for educational and research purposes only.

POWER OF ATTORNEYS (POA)

Definition:

A power of attorney is a document that states who is legally allowed to make decisions if a person is no longer able to act on their own behalf. The word "attorney" in a power of attorney does not mean "lawyer." It is just the legal name used to describe your decision-maker. The document can allow the appointed person to handle financial matters such as paying bills, signing checks, banking, management of a business or investments. There is more than one type of power of attorney, including both financial and medical. Many people choose to limit the power of attorney, keeping major decisions for themselves as long as they're mentally competent.

Capacity Assessment Office

www.attorneygeneral.jus.gov.on.ca/english/family/pgt/capacity.php

A 'capacity assessor' is someone who is qualified and designated to determine whether an individual is mentally capable of making certain types of decisions. In Ontario, doctors, occupational therapist, registered nurses, registered social workers and psychologists can be qualified as a 'capacity assessor'.

If you have questions about your own will or about being a beneficiary, you should consult a lawyer.

WILLS AND ESTATES

A will is a written document in which you indicate how your assets should be distributed upon your death. A will may also help you to take advantage of tax-savings opportunities and tax deferrals that may arise as a result of your death. It's a good idea to have a lawyer who knows estate law prepare your will. Be careful when using a "Will Kit" as some of these kits may not comply with Ontario law. If you do not sign and witness your will in accordance with the rules of the Succession Law Reform Act, it may not be valid.

When a person dies, it's important to know if he or she has a will and where it is kept. Some people file their will with local courts or with a lawyer, or keep it in a safety deposit box or a drawer at home. The executor of an estate carries out the wishes contained in a will.

If a person dies without a will (intestate), then the estate is distributed according to Ontario's Succession Law Reform Act. The estate may also end up being administered by the Public Guardian and Trustee in certain circumstances if an Ontario resident dies without a will, or with a will but with no one to act as estate trustee.

FINANCIAL

Canada Pension Plan (CPP)

The Canada Pension Plan (CPP) retirement pension provides a monthly benefit to eligible Canadians.

You must have worked and made at least one valid contribution (payment) to the CPP to qualify for a CPP retirement pension. The standard age to begin receiving the pension is 65. However, you can take a permanently reduced CPP retirement pension as early as age 60 or take a permanently increased pension after age 65.

Old Age Security Pension

The Old Age Security (OAS) pension is a monthly payment available to most Canadians 65 years of age who meet the Canadian legal status and residence requirements. You must apply to receive it.

In addition to the Old Age Security pension, there are three types of Old Age Security benefits:

- Guaranteed Income Supplement
If you live in Canada and you have a low income, this monthly non-taxable benefit can be added to your OAS pension.
- Allowance
If you are 60 to 64 years of age and your spouse or common-law partner is receiving the Old Age Security pension and is eligible for the Guaranteed Income Supplement; you might be eligible to receive this benefit.

- Allowance for the Survivor
If you are 60 to 64 years of age and you are widowed, you might be eligible to receive this benefit.

If you are a senior, there are many reasons why you should file an annual personal tax return even if you have no income to report. For example:

The Goods and Services Tax/Harmonized Sales Tax (GST/HST) credit, a tax free quarterly payment that helps offset all or part of the GST or HST you pay

Refundable tax credits or grants that you may be eligible for even if you have earnings or have paid no tax

Pension programs that automatically renew when you file your tax return, such as Old Age Security, Guaranteed Income Supplement, Allowance and Allowance for the Survivor.

There are additional government income programs for older Canadians, but you must apply for most of them. You won't receive benefits automatically. Many programs use your income tax return to determine if you are eligible. Filing your tax return by April 30th each year is the best way to ensure that you are getting the benefits you are eligible to receive.

Ontario Seniors' Secretariat

The Ontario Seniors' Secretariat is the sector of the Ontario Government that is dedicated to the improvement of quality of life for our senior residents. This is achieved through advocacy, development of policies and programs along with facilitation and providing information to seniors.

Visit: www.ontario.ca/page/ministry-seniors-affairs or call the Seniors' INFOline 1-888-910-1999 or TTY: 1-800-387-5559 for up-to-date information regarding government programs and incentives geared to seniors.

Oral Health

Oral Health for seniors is just as important as it was through their younger years. Poor oral health can affect a person's quality of life. Regular dentist visit, daily brushing and flossing can help maintain your natural adult teeth.

See your local Dentist or Denturist for more information and tips regarding your oral health.

ORTHO-CONNECT- Canadian Orthopaedic Foundation

Ortho connect is a telephone based service that connects new patients and clients with a trained volunteer who's been through the same or a similar surgery.

Steps to Protect your Vision

- If you are over the age of 45, have your eyes examined on a regular basis.

- If your eyes water, it may be that you are more sensitive to light, wind, or temperature change. Simply shielding your eyes or wearing sunglasses may solve the problem.
- Turn on the lights. Seeing better can sometimes be as easy as changing a light bulb to one with a higher wattage. Putting 100 or 150 watt bulbs in your lamps can reduce eye strain. Just make sure the fixture is designed for that wattage. Bright light is important in stairways to help prevent falls.
- Don't smoke. Smoking tobacco is a major risk factor in the early onset of age-related macular degeneration.
- Reduce glare as much as possible by using good lampshades, glare shields on computer monitors, and sunglasses. Sunglasses should provide 99 to 100% UV-A and UV-B protection. UV rays can harm your eyes even on a cloudy day.
- Protect your eyes from accidents in your home, Example: Put a grease shield over frying foods.
- Make sure spray cans and nozzles are pointed away from you when spraying.
- Wear safety glasses in the workshop and when using chemical products such as ammonia.
- Eat your carrots. A daily dose of the vitamins and minerals found in melons, citrus fruit, carrots, spinach, and kale may help slow the progress of age-related eye diseases such as macular degeneration, glaucoma, and cataracts.

- Don't drive at night if you have problems with depth perception, glare, or other vision difficulties.

MEDICATIONS

As you get older, the way medications work in your body can change. Some medications, or combinations of medications, can make you sleepy or dizzy and can cause you to fall.

Health Canada also estimates that:

- Seniors consume between 20 and 40 percent of all prescription medicines.
- Between 18 and 50 percent of all medications used by seniors are used inappropriately
- Between 19 and 28 percent of hospital admissions for patients over 50 years of age occur as a result of medication problems.
- 60 percent of these admissions are attributed to adverse reactions and 40 percent to non-compliance.

Blister Packs and Dosette Packaging

Blister or Dosettes packaging is available at most pharmacies, and is a simple and convenient way to receive a weeks worth of medication in a clearly labeled contained package.

By dispensing medication in this packaging form:

- Reduces medication dosage errors
- Allows an opportunity for loved ones to monitor missed/ over-age dosages
- Ensures that discontinued medications are disposed of in an effective manner
- Decreases medication interactions of over the counter and behind the counter medications

HOME HEALTH CARE

Respite Care Basics

Caregivers must seek respite support to maintain their own health and well being while supporting loved ones. The task of caregiving can become very exhausting, and overwhelming, leaving them feeling isolated. Respite care can take many forms, but boils down to two basic ideas: sharing the responsibility for caregiving and getting support for yourself. Finding the right balance requires persistence, patience, and preparation.

INDEPENDENT LIVING RESOURCE FOR SENIORS IN THEIR OWN HOMES

Types of Respite Services

In-home respite:

- Informal family support and relief
- Online caregiver communities and video workshops
- Volunteer or paid companionship
- Personal care or skilled health assistance

Out-of-home respite:

- Adult day programs
- Residential respite care
- Caregiver support groups

Even the healthiest families can be severely stressed by ongoing care, and the division of labor is frequently lopsided. You can encourage support and participation by:

- Talking openly and regularly. Keep everyone up to date on your loved one's needs and condition. Family members who don't share the day-to-day care-taking experience may not fully appreciate the situation.
- Encouraging family members to evaluate what they can reasonably and honestly do. Changing roles and varying resource levels can impact family involvement. Welcome different viewpoints, accept limitations, and be willing to try alternate strategies.
- Recognizing your own feelings and discussing disproportionate tasks. Harboring resentment when you need more help can lead to your burnout and impaired health. Ask directly for support and specific time commitments. Consider establishing a calendar to organize relief and reconfirm schedules.

- Participating in support groups. Learning how other families cope can suggest new options and provide reassurance. When siblings are unable or unwilling to share the load, peer support can be invaluable.

Community Care Access Centre- Brant

519-759-7752

195 Henry St, Unit 4, Bldg 4 Brantford,
ON N3S 5C9

www.hnhb.ccac-ont.ca

Community Care Access Centres (CCACs) are the local point of access to community-based health care services. CCACs provide access to government-funded in-home health care (nursing, personal support, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and nutrition) and community services, and long-term care homes. They also provide information about local community support service agencies, and we can link people to these agencies.

INDEPENDENT LIVING RESOURCE FOR SENIORS IN THEIR OWN HOMES

Who can receive services?

People of all ages may receive our services. To receive services, you must be a resident of Ontario, have a valid health card, and be able to receive care safely at home. In some cases, clients may receive care in other settings such as at school or at a community based nursing clinic.

Costs

There are no out-of-pocket costs for CCAC services. CCAC services are funded by the Government of Ontario, and are governed by provincial guidelines. There may be user fees for services provided by community agencies.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

Emergency Management Ontario

1-877-314-3723

AskEMO@Ontario.ca

Ontario.ca/beprepared

Visit www.ontario.ca/beprepared for a detailed step-by-step approach for ensuring your safety during an emergency situation.

Be prepared in Three Easy Steps...

1. Make a Plan
2. Build a Kit
3. Be Informed

Recommended items to keep in the house in case of an emergency:

- Water, at least a 3 day supply
- Non-perishable food, at least a 3 day supply that requires no refrigeration, cooking or little water
- Flashlight and extra batteries
- First Aid Kit including a supply of prescription medications
- Whistle to signal for help

It is law in Ontario now, that as well as having a working smoke detector on every level of your home, you must have a working Carbon Monoxide detector on every level

FIRE SAFETY

When it comes to fire safety, seniors are particularly vulnerable. Decreasing mobility and cognitive challenges can make it harder to respond to a fire and reach safety. To stay safe, remember the following:

- Make sure you have working smoke alarms. By law, smoke alarms are required to be on every story of your home and outside all sleeping areas. Test your smoke alarms monthly and change the battery once a year or when the low battery warning sounds. If you suffer hearing loss or sleep with the bedroom door closed, install a smoke alarm inside your bedroom or install a flashing or vibrating smoke alarm.
- Have at least two ways out of every room if possible. Develop a home fire escape plan that considers your mobility challenges. Practice your escape plan often. For seniors with memory concerns, record escape plans and place copies in an easily accessible location.
- Stay in the kitchen when cooking. Cooking fires are one of the leading causes of fire injuries among older adults. Turn off the stove/oven if you leave the room while cooking. Wear tight fitting or rolled up sleeves when cooking. Loose or dangling clothing can easily catch fire if it comes in contact with the burners or open flame.
- Encourage smokers to smoke outside or use large deep ashtrays that can't be easily knocked over to collect ashes from cigarettes. Do not extinguish cigarettes in plant pots, which often contain peat moss, shredded wood and bark that can easily ignite.

- Empty ashtrays properly by dousing ashes with water or emptying them into the toilet. Make sure they are completely out. Never empty ashtrays directly into the garbage.
- Never smoke in bed.

FRAUDS AND SCAMS

Seniors are often the target of frauds and scams, and can be targeted in person, over the telephone or online. Always remember that if something seems too good to be true, it most likely is. Here are some scams to look out for:

Home Renovation Scam

Con artists will contact seniors and offer a special senior discount on various home renovations, such as building a wheelchair ramp or patching the roof. The con artist will charge you three or four times fair market price for the renovation job. It is important to always ask for references and educate yourself about the cost of any renovations you are interested in.

Public Utility Imposter Scam

Con artist and thieves, normally in pairs, will pose as public utility workers and try to enter your home. One will accompany you to your in home service location (gas meter), while the other searches your home for valuables, medications and information about your identity. Always ask for identification and confirm with the public service company the identity of the inspector(s) and the need for an appointment.

Prize or Vacation Scam

Seniors will receive notification by phone or e-mail that they have won a prize or a trip, but are also told a payment is required to cover transportation, insurance or legal fees. Never send money in advance – if you truly won something you should not have to pay for it.

Emergency Scam

Fraudsters like to create a sense of urgency. They send e-mails pretending to be a trusted friend or relative, such as a grandchild, and claim that an emergency has happened and that they need money right away. In disguise as your trusted friend or relative, they will claim they can't call you. Always be cautious when someone on the Internet is asking you to wire them money right away.

Counterfeit Websites

Seniors are the fastest-growing group of online shoppers. Unfortunately, some websites sell counterfeit products at drastically reduced prices. Always take you time and research the product that you want to buy. Take care to buy from a reputable website. Examine customer reviews and look for a phone number that you can call to talk to a representative.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre-SeniorBuster

1-888-495-8501

www.antifraudcentre.ca

This center collects information from consumers about various types of fraud and plays a crucial role in education the public about specific mass marketing fraud pitches. SeniorBuster is a group of older adult volunteers who work to combat mass marketing fraud practices against seniors. The SeniorBuster program offers education, counseling and referrals for senior victims of illegal mass marketing fraud and identity theft or fraud.

Some tips to avoid being scammed:

- If it seems too good to be true, it most likely is!
- Always shred important documents, that have any personal information on them
- Be extra cautious about giving anyone your Social Insurance Number
- Never give out banking, personal or credit card information unless you know you are dealing with a reputable organization or charity
- Report suspicious activity to the police, to protect others from being caught in a scam
- If you have been targeted by fraud, don't be embarrassed, you are not alone, Report the incident to the police

Internet Safety:

- Create strong passwords, that contain capital letters and numbers
- Change your passwords frequently, and do not share them with others
- Remember to sign-out of websites when you are finished (Ex. Online banking)
- Never release personal information over the internet
- Use caution when using online dating websites, ensure that you are talking to who you think you are
- Don't fall for e-mail scams – be cautious about links that are sent to you in a suspicious e-mail, it could be a virus
- Use anti-virus protection software on your computer to protect your important confidential documents.
- Don't be afraid to ask for help!
- Many local libraries run computer classes and courses, that can allow you to feel more comfortable and confident on the computer and the internet.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

SAFETY AT HOME

Some tips to ensure safety around the home...

- Always keep a phone and important phone numbers close by, even while in bed
- Always keep your doors locked, even when you are home
- When arriving home, have your keys in hand ready to gain quick entry if necessary
- Install a peephole in your door to allow you to see who is knocking at the door before you open it
- Do not let anyone in your home that you do not feel safe with
- Consider installing a security system, depending on your environment
- Ensure that you have proper safety devices in your home to accommodate for any disabilities that you might have. (i.e. smoke detector with visual indicators for the hearing impaired etc.)
- Leave a light on during the evening, or have a light on a timer if you are not home
- Have good lighting outside
- Never give out information over the phone or internet
- Ask neighbors to keep an eye for any suspicious behaviour
- Keep money, medications and expensive jewelry in a safe place out of sight

- Only give out your house key to someone that you can absolutely trust, do not hide a key on the property
- Ensure that your house number can be seen from the road at all times, to allow for the response of emergency vehicles
- Consider using only your initials on a door plate, or mail box to not allow for gender classification
- Community watch, beware of dog and alarm system signs can deter criminal activity

Some things to consider to be prepared for an intruder or burglar:

- Try to avoid contact with the intruder
- Call 911 as soon as it is safe to do so
- Try to bring attention to the situation, by shouting "Go away", "Get out of my house", or "Call the police"
- Conduct yourself in a confident manor –strong voice, and body language
- You are allowed to use force against your attacker when defending yourself, but be aware that if you use something as a

SAFETY AND SECURITY

weapon in self defense, it could be turned against you

Telephone Security:

- When using the telephone, don't give personal information to strangers, or callers representing themselves as market research or telemarketing companies as they may not be genuine.
- When answering the telephone, it may be better to use "Hello" rather than reveal your name or telephone number. Do not let strangers know that you are at home alone.
- When recording an answering machine message, do not indicate what times you will be in or out, and keep personal information to a minimum
- A women living alone could consider using the term 'we' in the recording, or have a male friend record the message.

The Seniors Toolkit was made possible by a grant from the Brant United Way. The new updated, revised and reformatted 2016 edition was made possible by a generous grant from the City of Brantford as part of their ongoing commitment to ending domestic and family violence in our community. The City worked in tandem with the B.R.A.V.E Committee (Brant's Response Against Violence Everywhere) and the Brant Elder Abuse Committee to ensure that this valuable resource could continue to be provided.

An online version of the handbook is available on the Victim Services of Brant website. Copies may be downloaded, printed and circulated free of charge. If material is reprinted, please credit the source. Copies are also available at many social service agencies and organizations that provide service to seniors.
